Looking for a professional Baby, Newborn photographer?
JaNa Photography can help!

MOMENTS of your newborn story

It is the best to hire a baby newborn photographer within two weeks after your newborn's birth, when they are between 5-12 days old. At this time, your newborn baby is still used to being in the womb, allowing us to position them into sweet and curly poses. After the two-week mark, they become more alert, lighter sleepers, and baby acne starts to set in.

With that being said we definitely still can photograph your newborn baby after two weeks.

Beautiful newborn photography images can be captured at any stage from 5 to 40 days old. However, you should know that once they grow past this "new" stage, we may not be able to entice them into all of the curly poses.

We are here to capture one of the most precious time of you and your baby's life. To help us and yourself having a successful newborn session consider the tips.

1. If you are a nursing mom, please be careful with what you eat for about a day before the session. Any sort of spicy or gassy foods can make the baby uncomfortable or upset their tummy.
2. Attempt to give your newborn some awake time as possible before your session. Do whatever to keep them alert for an hour or two. Then, when they arrive in studio, they'll be ready for a long nap! A bath always helps but at least one hour before the session starts!
3. Bring the baby in a button-up or zip-up sleeper. Preferably a loose fitting one. One of the worst things is when baby arrives sleepy in their car seat and then you have to remove socks, pants, and take a shirt off over their heads which always wakes them up. Instead, it's so simple to zip down and slip off pajamas while baby remains asleep!
4. Make sure baby has a full tummy right before you come to the session. Feeding will likely occur a few more times throughout the session as well.
5. Before starting the session we will ask you to wrap the baby in a blanket with just the diaper on and feed while we set up. This way we don't have to undress the baby once they've fallen asleep.
6. Please consider bringing a pacifier, even if baby doesn't typically take one. This will help in comforting them during the session, and by no means needs to be a permanent thing.
7. The studio will be Hot during a newborn session. Please dress accordingly. It is always very hard and intolerable for dads, but as the baby is almost naked during the session the place must be warm and cozy for them to fall asleep.
8. Don't worry if your baby has a pee or poop during the session. It always happened especially when they are naked in family shots with mom and dad. You may want to bring extra clothing just in case. Don't forget extra diapers and wipes! For mom and dad shots both light (White), dark (black) and creamy colors work well.
9. We do have nice, cute and unique hats and props, but if you want you can bring some personal items like hats, blankets and the toys that you may have for your baby. Bring Wipes and extra Dippers.
10. Newborn sessions are mostly soooooo long. So it would be very helpful to bring your laptop or even your favorite book. Even if you will be busy during the shoot sometimes two to three hours is a long time to just sit there bored!

CAKE SMASH SESSION

IN STUDIO - OUTDOOR

Package includes balloon, flags and props

Cake smash One year old

Celebrating one-year old's cake smash is such a fun and exciting time!

It's a great celebration to the end of the amazing year that your baby has been through. Let's celebrate it together!

How does this work in JaNa Photography?
Closer to the special day you can check our availability according to the baby's happiest time during the day to secure your spot.

We make all the arrangements and consult the theme colour of the session by sending you the tips and discussing the options on the phone a few days before the shoot. We ask you what colour cake you would be bringing to your session and we prepare the set up with flags, banner, balloons or the other props we have in studio accordingly.

Clients are always more than welcome to bring their own props for their one-year-old photography session.

We also ask about the colour preferences for the theme of the session. Parents pick mostly blue, green or grey for the baby boys and pink, peachy, purple or any set up coordinating colour for baby girls.

What Clients Have to Say About Their Experiences with JaNa Photography

We can not thank you both enough for your amazing services and just how pleasant you two were to work with in capturing these precious moments in our lives. Having you do our maternity and newborn pictures.

We are absolutely pleased with everything! You both have such a positive energy and such an awesome easy going attitude. Your passion shows in each pictures you take and we will definitely refer people without hesitation!

Thank you both so very much.

Aaron and Monica

We were really happy with the photo shoot at our house. They were professional and did a great job of getting our little guy in the nice positions. Our prints arrived last week and we hung them on the wall yesterday and they look great. We will definitley use them again and be recommending to our friends.

Joseph Chopik

Wow i must say, i've seen a lot of professional photograpers. But, JANA PHOTOGRAPHY are really the best. They did my newborn and they have done a really great job and we are very satisfied with the work they did. Thank you so much for the wonderful job.

Jhozar Llazar

would love to be the once who tell your story.

We will make you a pleasant experience at our professional boutique studio.
